

NOVEMBER 2018

Closing Date 31 Jan 2019

CALL FOR PAPERS

African Journal on Arbitration and Mediation (AJAM).

The International Centre for Arbitration and Mediation Abuja (ICAMA) welcomes submission from interested contributors, well researched articles that deal with issues relating to ADR and specifically to Arbitration and Mediation acceptable both nationally and internationally. Word count for articles should be between 2,000 to 7,000 words. Articles below or above the stipulated word count will also be considered depending on the content of the article. All articles should be sent via email to info@icama.com and a copy to ikpeme@icama.com

About AJAM

The International Centre for Arbitration and Mediation Abuja (ICAMA) is committed to the cause of ADR in the following different areas:

1. Training and re-training of individuals and organizations in the area of Alternative Dispute Resolution.
2. Organizing workshops for the Judiciary on ADR
3. Publication of the Nigerian Journal of Arbitration and Mediation (NJAM) and African Journal on Arbitration and Mediation (AJAM)
4. Organizing the acclaimed African Bi-annual Arbitration Roundtable on hot topics in ADR with a view to stimulating and encouraging public discourse and creating awareness in ADR within Nigeria and Africa

ICAMA Journal Review Committee

Contributors are hereby informed that every article will undergo scrutiny for quality and standard purposes from the ICAMA Journal Review Committee before they are published.

CLOSING DATE FOR SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION IS 31ST JANUARY 2019