OBJECTIVE

---

Seeking a challenging career and opportunities to maximize my potential. I enjoy stimulating work and I am adamant on constantly developing my skills as a lawyer.

EDUCATION

LLB, Ain Shams University Class 2018
Faculty of Law - English Section.
Grade: Very Good.

High School Literature Certificate, Class 2014
Futures Language School.
Grade: 95%.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Shalakany Law Office (September 2019 - current):

I am currently a member of Shalakany's Dispute Resolution Department. I have acted on behalf of clients in commercial arbitrations before CRCICA in Egypt and the ICC as well as representing clients before national Egyptian courts.

I provide day-to-day legal advice to many multinational and Egyptian companies on various aspects of corporate, commercial, insurance, and oil and gas matters.

Esquire ILA (September 2018 - August 2019):

Working on both Arbitration and Transactional matters, which enabled me to build and improve legal research, writing, and translation, as well as, time management, and organization.

One-month training assignment with Shalakany Law Office (July-August, 2016):

Working in both Arbitration and Corporate departments, for two weeks each, in addition to doing a simulation of the Shalakany Moot Court, aided me in honing my legal research, writing, and presentation skills.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Ain Shams Model Arab League (2015-2018):

Working in various committees throughout university years, further refining my skills in public speaking, leadership, and team work.
